Personal Prayer: Lord, thank You for what You did for me. You experienced a severe beating, abuse, and disgrace for me. You were crucified on a cross for me and on that cross, You died for me. But I'm so thankful that the story didn't end there, because the Bible says You rose from the dead, on Sunday morning. I have come today, to celebrate Your resurrection. Your resurrection guarantees You have power over death and I can have life with You. The Bible tells me that if I confess with my mouth that You are Lord of my life and believe in my heart that God raise You from the dead, I will be saved. Help me to not only accept Your promise, but to live a life pleasing to You as Lord of my life. Give me the boldness to speak up and let everyone know I believe in You. Allow me to share with everyone how good You have been to me. I live to intentionally love and glorify You in all that I do. In the name of Jesus, I pray, Amen.
