1. A Mother's Worst Fear (vv. 17–18)

2. Faith in Action (vv. 19–21)

3. Life Restored (vv. 22–23)

4. A Changed Heart (v. 24)

Personal Prayer: Lord, thank You for all of Your many blessings. The Bible tells me that although You are continually blessing me doesn't exempt me from trials, challenges, or difficulties.

Regardless, what life may send my way, I must stand faithful, knowing You love me with an everlasting love, and You are in total control of everything going on. Thank You for allowing me to see Your blessings in action! You are continually opening and closing doors on my behalf, and I pray that You always give me the insight to see what You are doing. Please Lord, give me the diligence and the consistency to stay in Your word, to stay prayerful, to build up the Spirit within me and grow closer to You. In today's text, Elijah didn't understand why You would allow the child to die, but he continued to trust You. Allow me to have a close relationship with You just like Elijah had. You know me better than I know myself and You know what I'm capable of. You have placed in me more than I can imagine, but You require me to trust You and live for You. Please Lord, give me the tenacity and boldness to represent You as a loyal servant of Jesus Christ. Yes, this is a perverse and crooked generation, which doesn't appreciate Your goodness, but Lord, help me stay focused on the tasks You have assigned to me. Help me as I strive to bring honor to Your name as I go throughout my day! I live to intentionally love and glorify You in all that I do. In the name of Jesus, I pray, Amen.
